

Fourth Annual China Business Summit

Reconsidering Your China Strategy in a World of High Oil Prices

Presented By

World Affairs Council of Kentucky/Southern Indiana
Kentucky World Trade Center
Greenebaum, Doll & McDonald
Greater Louisville Inc.

Part of the China Business Network series

Tuesday, September 30, 2008
Registration: 8:00 -- 8:30 a.m.
Program: 8:30 -- 10:30 a.m.
Greenebaum, Doll & McDonald
National City Tower
101 S. 5th Street
Louisville, Kentucky 40202

PANELISTS

Claude C. Hayes – President, Retail Heating, DESA
"Leaving China: Why we are moving"

Campbell Barnum – Global Vice President, Branding and Marketing, D.D. Williamson
"Staying in China: Why it still works"

John W. Ames – President, American Bankruptcy Institute
Chair, Vietnam Team, Greenebaum Doll & McDonald
"Vietnam as an alternative"

Mark Peachey – Director, International Trade, Ky Cabinet for Economic Development
"Back to Kentucky: Unbridling your spirit"

$20 per person
Light Refreshments Provided
Reserve Now

Seats Should be Reserved by COB September 29

Ticket Information: To reserve your seat by phone using your credit card, call the World Affairs Council at (502) 561-5422. Tickets are $20/person. Space may also be purchased online at www.worldkentucky.org with your Visa, Discover, American Express or MasterCard. Tickets must be purchased by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, September 29, 2008. NO TICKETS WILL BE SOLD AT THE DOOR.